

Tasmania Division Council Election 2026

CANDIDATES

Please note:

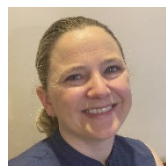

- Candidates are presented in alphabetical order.
- Biographies are supplied by the candidates.
- Where a * appears at the start of a candidate's name, this means that the Council supports the re-election of this candidate.

The Council does not conduct an assessment process for new candidates seeking election to the Council or re-standing Councillors. However, where the Council considers a current Councillor to have made a valuable contribution to the Council or the AICD during their term, the Council has the discretion to indicate to members that it supports the re-election of that Councillor.

Where a Council supports the re-election of a current Councillor it does not constitute an assessment against other candidates. Members should consider the skills, experience and potential contribution of all candidates when casting their vote.

Kate Alcorso GAICD

BCom LLB, Grad Cert Legal Prac, FTIA

Kate is a dedicated community leader with over 20 years' experience in governance roles, predominantly working within for purpose organisations locally and nationally. Kate's governance roles have strong connections to member-based organisations in both professional bodies and large-scale volunteer membership.

Professionally, Kate is a practicing lawyer admitted to the Bar and located in Launceston, with degrees in both commerce and law from the University of Tasmania. Predominantly providing businesses and individuals with advice in business and personal transactions, including succession planning and estates. Kate has a commerce background and takes a special interest in tax laws. She is a fellow of the Tax Institute of Australia and has chaired their Tasmanian State Council (between 2022 and 2024). This professional background equips Kate to provide oversight in a wide range of governance matters.

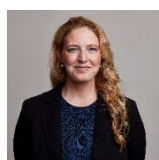

Kate is a former chair of the Girl Guides Australia board (between 2021 and 2025) and has also acted as chair of various board committees, including those focussed on governance, risk, finance and human resources.

Kate is a graduate of the Company Director's Course and has been a member of the AICD since 2020.

Nominators: Margaret Marshall GAICD and Jillian Aylett Brown GAICD

 Ekaterina Skalidis GAICD

BA, LLB, GDLP

Ekaterina is a Director of Dobson Mitchell Allport Lawyers and leads the firm's Dispute Resolution and Commercial Litigation practice. She specialises in employment, workplace relations and work health and safety law, providing strategic advice to boards, chief executives and senior leaders across Tasmania.

Ekaterina has more than 20 years' governance experience. She commenced her directorship journey with the Greek Community of Tasmania and later served for nine years as a non-executive director of Anglicare Tasmania, including membership of its Finance, Risk and Audit, Quality and Care Governance, Nominations and Executive Committees. She also served as a director of Football Federation Tasmania and chaired its Nominations Committee.

She currently serves as the Honorary Consul for Greece in Tasmania and was recognised as an AICD Emerging Director in 2023. Ekaterina is passionate about promoting strong governance, director education and board effectiveness across Tasmania. She brings experience in governance, risk management, legal compliance and organisational strategy gained through advising boards, government entities, not-for-profit organisations and private enterprises.

Ekaterina is a graduate of the Company Directors Course and has been a member of the AICD since 2015.

Nominators: Dr Katrena Stephenson FAICD and Andrew Frost FAICD